

Please do not change FCC rules to allow a further concentration of media outlets. The diversity and representation we need from our radio and television outlets are quickly disappearing -- please do not hasten it.

Regards.